

UNZUNG HEROES

The image features a vibrant, hand-painted aesthetic. The background is a solid blue with a fine, grainy texture. Centered on this is a large hexagon composed of two overlapping shapes: a red one in the background and a yellow one in the foreground. The text 'UNZUNG' is written in a thick, black, brush-stroke style font, slanted upwards from left to right. Below it, the word 'HEROES' is written in the same style, also slanted but more horizontally aligned. The letters have a slightly irregular, hand-drawn quality. Surrounding the central graphic are several black ink splatters and paint drips, most notably a large, dark splatter in the upper right corner and smaller ones in the upper left and lower right, adding to the edgy, artistic feel of the composition.

John 12 v 1 - 8

¹Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ²Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honour. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. ³Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

John 12 v 1 - 8

⁴ But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected, ⁵ "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages." ⁶ He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it. ⁷ "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. ⁸ You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me." NIV
